

National Development Council
Partners In Community Development Since 1969

Housing Development Finance Professional Certification Program™

Join us for the National Development Council's Housing Development Finance Professional Certification Program™. The four-course training explores the housing development process, financial analysis techniques and structuring, and the negotiating skills needed to successfully develop and finance affordable homeownership and rental housing development.

- HD410: Homeownership Finance, October 19-22, 2015
- HD420: Rental Housing Development Finance, April 25-29, 2016
- HD422: Computer Spreadsheet Analysis for Housing, June 21-23, 2016
- HD430: Housing Development Finance: Problem Solving and Deal Structuring, October 10-14, 2016

Through partnerships and sponsorships, we are pleased to be able to offer the full series at a deep discount, all four courses for only $1200. Plus if you participate in all four parts, you'll earn a Housing Development Finance Professional certification.

For more information or to register, visit us online at www.ndhfa.org.

Questions can be directed to NDHFA Planning and Housing Development Division Director Jennifer Henderson, (800) 292-8621 or hfainfo@nd.gov.

Special Thanks to Our Sponsors

About the National Development Council

The National Development Council is the oldest national non-profit community and economic development organizations in the U.S. It was founded in 1969 with one purpose: increasing the flow of capital for investment, jobs and community development to under served urban and rural areas across the country. Since that time, NDC has worked with thousands of communities, providing technical assistance, professional training, investment in affordable housing, small business financing and direct developer services.